MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF DUPONT'S
RENEWED MOTION FOR MISTRIAL AS TO TRAVIS AND JULIE ABBOTT

Defendant E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company ("DuPont") respectfully requests that the Court declare a mistrial as to Travis and Julie Abbott's claims rather than entering judgment against DuPont on those claims. As set forth in DuPont's earlier mistrial motion, the circumstances surrounding the jury deliberations had an unconstitutionally coercive effect and a mistrial should be granted. DuPont renews and incorporates by reference its motion for mistrial post-verdict on the facts and law previously set forth in its filed motion for mistrial and the motion for mistrial submitted to the Court under seal. See Abbott, ECF 177, 178; Swartz, ECF 187, 188. It further renews its motion for mistrial based on the jury's verdict rendered after DuPont's prior motions were made and on the following facts relevant to the verdict:¹

1. On Thursday, February 27 and Friday, February 28, 2020, the jury appeared to be deliberating regarding the claims of Plaintiffs Travis and Julie Abbott. On February 27, they requested the deposition, testimony, and report of Dr. Pohar, and the testimony of Dr. Nichols, the specific causation experts on testicular cancer, which is the basis of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott's claims and not relevant to the claims of the other Plaintiffs. Feb. 27, 2020 Trial Tr. at 34:21-36:14. The jury also asked for the Science Panel report. Feb. 27, 2020 Trial Tr. 37:14-18.

2. As described in DuPont's previous motion, the Court received a series of jury notes late in the afternoon on February 27 and on the morning of February 28. The questioning of Juror 54 took place on February 28 at 10:40am, after the jury notes were received. Feb. 28, 2020 Trial Tr. 9:8. Juror 54 she indicated she requested the testimony of Dr. Nichols and the Science Panel report, and she was "saying no when they are saying yes." Id. at 12:25-13:3. Based on the timing and content of the jury notes and subsequent questioning of Juror 54, Juror 54 apparently disagreed with her fellow jurors regarding whether specific causation was established on the Abbotts' claims.

3. At 11:00am that same day, the modified Allen charge was issued, shortly before the jury was discharged for the weekend. Id. at 14:23-15:1. The modified Allen charge including the instruction to the jury to consider the "great expense and great emotional harm to all the parties in this case, defense and the plaintiff." Id. at 16:11-12 (emphasis added). After Juror 54 was sent back, and shortly before the modified Allen charge, the jury requested the testimony of Dr. Margulis the specific causation expert for Angela and Teddy Swartz. Id. at 16:17-20. The jury was discharged for the day at 12:05pm. Id. at 17:1.

4. Soon after jury deliberations resumed on Monday, March 2, the jury requested further information relevant to the claims of only Mrs. and Mr. Swartz, indicating that they were no longer deliberating Mr. and Mrs. Abbott's claims. The jury requested the blood pressure records of Angela Swartz and the deposition transcript of Dr. Olson and Dr. Dayal, who were Mrs. Swartz's primary care physicians.

6. Early in the afternoon of March 2, the jury deadlocked on the claims of Mr. and Mrs. Swartz, and returned a verdict in favor of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott and against DuPont, finding that Mr. Abbott had established specific causation and awarding $40 million on Travis Abbott's claim and $10 million on Julie Abbott's claim for loss of consortium.

DuPont respectfully submits that these facts and chronology further confirm that the modified Allen charge and surrounding circumstances amounted to undue coercion of the jury and prejudiced DuPont. DuPont acknowledges the Court's order today on Correction of the Record. Abbott, ECF 179. For preservation purposes, DuPont respectfully submits that the modified Allen charge and surrounding circumstances, both independently and taken together, exerted undue coercive pressure on the single juror to change her vote, prejudiced DuPont, and warrant the declaration of a mistrial. Accordingly, DuPont respectfully renews its motion for mistrial as to the claims of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott.

CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, and in the interests of justice, DuPont respectfully requests that the Court grant its motion and declare a mistrial as to Mr. and Mrs. Abbott's claims rather than entering judgment against DuPont.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Damond R. Mace
